Asma Jehangir

Lawyers such as Asma Jehangir, Ansar Burney, and Zia Awan have fought for the rights of the poor victims.

The Citizens' Foundation (TCF) has set up schools in low income areas to provide good quality education for the poor students.

The Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) is working to promote a clean environment through the city. Shehri is a non-governmental organization (NGO) founded in 1988 by a group of concerned citizens to create awareness about their living environment and provide people the opportunity to actively participate in improving and reforming it. Their work also includes conservation and human rights.

In almost all the countries of the world there are people and organizations that work for human rights and for the health and education of the region's poor people. The work they do and their total commitment are an inspiration to all.
